

Immigration Court Completions Representation Status

Depicted below is the representation status for immigration court cases at the time of completion. Aliens are represented by private or pro bono attorneys.

In FY 1994, represented cases comprised 34 percent of the overall number of completions. By FY 1999, represented cases will rise to 47percent of overall completions.